

Schimek, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: A moment...a point of personal privilege, Mr. President.

SPEAKER WITHEM: State your point.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Some of you may have noticed the clutter on Senator Bernard-Stevens' desk this morning and I would just like to explain that. There were a group of women senators here who, upon hearing that David was...Senator Bernard-Stevens was moving into his own apartment yesterday, decided to turn over some of our housekeeping functions to him. You remember Senator Bernard-Stevens, earlier in this session, said something to the effect that he thought it was appropriate that I was carrying housekeeping bills. Well, we want him to carry the housekeeping bills from now on. We have given him a number of supplies that will help him, not only to clean his own house, but to clean house politically that will help rid the political arena of dirt and grime and that will help him sweep issues under the rug. We expect Nebraska to be a cleaner, better place with David in charge. Thank you very much.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator Schimek, I think. The next item, legislative resolutions.

CLERK: Mr. President, the first resolution LR 324, offered by Senator Robak, found on page 948.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Senator McKenzie, I understand you're handling the resolution.

SENATOR MCKENZIE: Yes. Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I was asked to handle this for Senator Robak who is not here this week. And, very briefly, the resolution is honoring Jason Held who set an all-class state record at the wrestling state championships with 40 consecutive wins in the 140-pound championship from Columbus High School. And, with that, I would ask the Legislature's support in congratulating Jason on this record-setting win. Thank you.

SPEAKER WITHEM: Thank you, Senator McKenzie. LR 325.

CLERK: LR 325, Mr. President, introduced by Senators Hall and
